NOBUAKI NAKAMURA SHIHAN, 6.DAN AIKIKAI

First Visit in Norway!

Nobuaki Nakamura Shihan began his training in aikido at Aikido Shohei Juku, Fukuoka in 1981, and became an uchideshi (live-in student) of Morito Suganuma Sensei (Aikikai 8th Dan, Kyushu So-Shihan, Dojo-cho of Aikido Shohei Juku) in 1992.
He was promoted to 6th Dan and received the title of Shihan (master) in 2009. Nakamura Shihan regularly teaches classes at all the main Shohei Juku dojos in Fukuoka, as well as some of the affiliated dojos and university clubs in and outside Fukuoka.
He has also been invited to seminars in Israel and Canada many times.

BJØRN EIRIK OLSEN SHIHAN, 7. DAN AIKIKAI

Bjorn Eirik Shihan started with Aikido in Tromsø, 1977. Soon he went to London to train Aikido full time, followed up by many years of intensive practice in Japan.

His earlier teachers were Minoru Kanetsuka, Seiseki Abe and Morihiro Saito, as well as several of the 'old' Hombu Dojo instructors. The most influential teachers later became Morito Suganuma and Minoru Inaba.

Since 1998, Bjorn Eirik has been the Chief instructor of the Norwegian Aikido Federation. He is also teaching abroad, and through the Aikido Guide-application, his teaching is reaching out to Aikido students in 70 countries.
