

Summercamp 2018

Norwegian Aikido Federation

Welcomes You To Aikido Camp At Hadeland Folkehøgskole, Brandbu
With

Nobuaki Nakamura Shihan, 6. Dan Aikikai & Bjørn Eirik Olsen Shihan, 7. Dan Aikikai

2nd time in Norway!

Nobuaki Nakamura Shihan began his training in Aikido at Aikido Shohei Juku, Fukuoka in 1981. He became an uchideshi (live-in student) of Morito Suganuma Sensei, (Aikikai 8th Dan, Kyushu So-Shihan, dojo-cho of Aikido Shohei Juku) in 1992. Nobuaki Nakamura Shihan was promoted to 6th Dan and received the title Shihan (master) in 2009. Nakamura Shihan regularly teaches classes at all the main Shohei Juku dojos in Fukuoka, as well as some of the affiliated dojos and university clubs in and outside Fukuoka. He has also been invited to seminars in Israel and Canada many times.

7-12 July

Bjørn Eirik Olsen Shihan started Aikido in Tromsø in 1977. He went to London to practice Aikido full time, followed up by many years of intensive practice in Japan. His earlier teachers were Minoru Kanetsuka, Seiseki Abe and Morihiro Saito, as well as several of the earlier/senior Hombu Dojo Shihans. The most influential teachers were Morito Suganuma and Minoru Inaba. Since 1998 Bjørn Eirik Olsen Shihan has been the Chief instructor of the Norwegian Aikido Federation. Bjørn Eirik Olsen Shihan is also teaching abroad. Through the Aikido Guide application, his teaching is reaching out to Aikido students in 70 countries.
