

The Norwegian Aikido Federation presents

Summer Camp 2023 Norway

01–06.07.23 at Hadeland Folkehøgskole,
Augedalsvegen 15, 2760 Brandbu

Hideki Takemura Shihan (7th Dan) began his aikido training when he was a student at Kyushu University in Fukuoka, and became an uchideshi (live-in student) for Morito Suganuma Sensei when he graduated from the university in 1993. Currently, Takemura Sensei teaches regular classes at the main Shoheijuku dojos and university clubs in and around Fukuoka, and he also frequently teaches abroad. He visited the NAF Summer Camp as a guest instructor in 2009, 2011, and 2013.

Bjørn Eirik Olsen Shihan (7th Dan) started aikido in Tromsø in 1977. He went to London to practice aikido full time, followed by many years of intensive practice in Japan. Important teachers have been Morito Suganuma, Minoru Inaba, Minoru Kanetsuka, Seiseki Abe, Morihiko Saito, and Kishomaru Ueshiba. Since 1988, Olsen Sensei has been the chief instructor of the Norwegian Aikido Federation, and he also holds regular seminars abroad. Through the Aikido Guide App, his teachings is reaching out to students in 70 countries.

Training:

Full camp	2000 NOK
3 day pass	1600 NOK
2 day pass	1100 NOK
1 day pass	600 NOK
Per session	300 NOK

Accommodation per day:

Room w/ bathroom	760 NOK
Room w/o bathroom	620 NOK
Sleep in classroom	430 NOK
Sleep in own tent/caravan	460 NOK
Daytime accomodation	360 NOK

Super discount:

Full seminar and accomodation in a classroom for participants from abroad, 3300 NOK total

To register, scan the QR code

Read about Aikido
at aikido.no

Read about Hadeland
Folkehøgskole at hafos.no